

A PREMIERE SCREENING TO BENEFIT THE ESPRIT ORCHESTRA

Ravel's Brain

A FILM BY LARRY WEINSTEIN

In the context of achievement and genius, the tragedy of Ravel's last years would have to be seen as much more devastating than the deafness of Beethoven.

Larry Weinstein

You are cordially invited to attend the North American Premiere Screening of

RAVEL'S BRAIN

a new film from internationally acclaimed director Larry Weinstein of Rhombus Media

Wednesday, April 4, 2001

*Glenn Gould Studio * Canadian Broadcasting Centre*

250 Front Street West, Toronto

6:30 pm

Reception

Wine and hors d'oeuvres

Balloon bursts – prizes / silent auction

7:45 pm

Esprit musicians perform Ravel's "Blues" for violin and piano in its original form, then in a special jazz ensemble version as arranged for the film by Alex Pauk and Alexina Louie

8:00 pm

"Ravel's Brain" film premiere screening

9:00 pm

Desserts and coffee

Tickets

Patron $ 125

Benefactor $ 250

(Benefactors will receive a video cassette copy of "Ravel's Brain" and will have their names listed in the evening's printed programme)

BALLOON BURST PRIZES AND SILENT AUCTION

Guests will have the opportunity to win fabulous "balloon burst" prizes during the course of the evening. A silent auction will be held featuring rare, high quality items.

SEATING IS LIMITED SO RESERVE NOW!

A tax receipt will be issued for the maximum allowable portion of the ticket price.

For tickets phone:

(416) 815-7887

Presented by

Scotiabank Group

PRODUCED WITH THE SUPPORT OF LEAPFROG DESIGN GROUP INC., RHOMBUS MEDIA, BRAVO! AND RENÉ MILOT

Illustration by René Milot